Updates

- Those who applied for football futures have been thanked on behalf of Kent Youth Council for being local representatives
- TJE used B's question template to complete a form ready for the appropriate sub-group to use
- The November/December newsletter has been sent off to the printers – TJE handed out previews of the newsletter to the group for their opinions. Was generally received positively.
- Next newsletter will be published February/March

Next Newsletter

- N, J and H will be writing articles
- K will be writing an article on the website

The RESPECT Project

- Three sandwich boards around Seaview agreed promoting RESPECT
- Banners on the goal net will hold the main information (double-sided)
- A quote will be used for each role in football (referees, parents, players and coaches)
- There was some debate on the quotes which were previously agreed – changes were made
- The next group activity was for everyone to take a piece of A4 plain paper and design their own RESPECT banner.
- TJE kept the best examples to show the executives (an example is attached to the e-mail)

- Official RESPECT merchandise can be found via - <http://respect.tmgsupport.co.uk/all-respect-merchandise-15-c.asp>

Greater Interaction Project
